

Pepper Spray Restrictions

The following list reflects the best information we have at this time and may or may not be complete. In no way should this be regarded as the final word on the legal status of stun devices or self-defense spray, commonly known as pepper spray. This list is not intended to take the place of legal counsel or be looked at as being any form of legal advice. Please check with your local authorities to obtain the latest information on the legality of self-defense products and the use of self-protection devices in your area. As a reminder, it is the responsibility of the end user of any of our products to check their local and state laws to determine the legality of that product.
